Papal Tweets
Pope Francis @Pontifex

♦ In the Sacrament of the Eucharist we find God who gives himself.

♦ We need to build up society in the light of the Beatitudes, walking towards the Kingdom with the least among us.

♦ The light of the Gospel guides all who put themselves at the service of the civilization of love.

Half and Half

Even though we are moving into the bit slower “summer” mode, there are still a number of important items to be attentive to!

Next weekend, a special second collection will be taken to assist those devastated by the disasters in the Southwest to the Midwest to the East coast. You have seen the devastation brought upon by Mother Nature. More than 20 people have died and many are still missing with thousands displaced from their homes. This collection is being coordinated by our parish St. Vincent de Paul Conference in response to the appeal made by the national St. Vincent de Paul Society.

You will find envelopes for this collection in the pews this weekend. If you prefer, you may also make your donation directly through the St. Vincent de Paul website, www.svdpusa.org. This enables you to donate using a credit card if that is your preferred option. Thank you for your generosity.

Our summer Vacation Bible School, Everest, will begin on Monday, June 22! If you want to register your children you still have time. (Go to the website and follow the link.) But the children who will come to this wonderful experience need some additional help! There are a number of items on the “needs board” in the Gathering Space in church. Your help in providing some of these needs would be greatly appreciated! Simply take a tag off the board, purchase or provide the item, and return it by next week. Your generosity is once again very much appreciated.

 Our summer parish office hours will begin next week starting on Monday June 22. The hours will be 8 am until 6 pm Monday through Thursday and 8 am until Noon on Fridays.

 Please remember your stewardship to the parish during the summer months. Not only do our core ministries continue, but our budget need is still the same during the summer as it is during the rest of the year. As we approach the “end of the year” at the end of June, we hope to close the budget gap in the Sunday Offerings. You will see that information in this bulletin. If perhaps you are able to “make up” any past Sundays by the end of this month, it would be greatly appreciated.

 Please continue to pray to the Holy Spirit that we all may be more aware of where the Holy Spirit is leading this parish. Also, pray to the Holy Spirit for an increase of vocations!!

Have a blessed week!
Msgr. Gary Smetanka

From the Deacon’s Desk

In today’s Gospel (Mark 4:26-34), Jesus tells us that faith “is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade.”

Our personal faith can be like a tiny mustard seed that can be sown in the lives of others and produce wonderful results beyond what we initially can imagine. Consider the lives of Blessed Louis and Blessed Zelie Martin, parents of St. Therese of Lisieux. They will be the first married couple in history to be canonized when Pope Francis leads the celebration in October during the World Synod on the Family.

Louis (1823-1894) and Zelie (1831-1877) were very devout in practicing the faith while supporting their family, Louis as a watchmaker and Zelie as a lacemaker. They were blessed with nine children, four of whom died at early ages. The other five were daughters: Therese, Leonie, Pauline, Celine and Marie. Louis and Zelie had a profound influence on their children; what Vatican II later called each family to be – a “domestic church.”

Louis and Zelie stand out in reminding us that we all are called to holiness, and that our lives can be like a mustard seed by influencing a person, who in turn influences others, and they in turn continue to influence more people. While Louis and Zelie didn’t realize at the time what impact their faith would have on their daughter, how many millions of people has St. Therese influenced? The other four girls also became nuns, and Leonie is being considered for the first stage of canonization. They also have influenced countless people with faith that began like a mustard seed in the Martin home.

Of course, our children don’t have to become clergy or consecrated religious, although that would be nice. However, if more parents are like Louis and Zelie, more children can grow up to be parents like Louis and Zelie, sowing and growing the mustard seed of faith to influence others, inside and outside the home. Blessed Louis and Zelie Martin, pray for us and our families. Have a blessed week.

In Christ’s Peace,
Deacon Bill
RJK - Equality

Two men born in the 19th century of diverse backgrounds, lived different lives and left different physical memorials on this earth. Both passed into eternity at relatively young ages; the allotted time of one of them was only half of the other.

One was a copper miner in the Keweenaw Peninsula of upper Michigan. He worked in the bowels of mother earth in the cliff mine, the world’s richest then, where pure copper could be found in two foot strips as long as thirty-six feet. The cliff was a killer. Boys, who crawled with their small bodies to set explosives, were frequently killed. Men plunged from icy ladders a thousand feet below the surface.

The cliff is long since silent. The houses and miners have gone, but in the Evergreen cemetery is a broken tombstone, “Absalon Bennett Departed This Life At Cliff Mine, Age 26…” No other memorial.

The other man was born in riches, but shunned the social life to the outside to run farms, cultivate the continuity of forests and flowers on over a hundred thousand acres at Asheville, North Carolina. He constructed a lavish home of 250 rooms, designed and built by craftsmen from America and Europe and furnished it with the best that the world could offer. Generators powered the lighting, only a dozen years after the light bulb was invented. The castle remains today, a tribute to what can be crafted by a person’s hands from God’s gifts of natural resources.

George Vanderbilt died from an appendectomy at age 52, and is buried on Staten Island, leaving the castle Biltmore as his memorial.

By the grace of God and His goodness, may Bennett and Vanderbilt share equally in the joy of heaven.

See you in church.

Word of Life

“Are not five sparrows sold for two small coins? Yet not one of them has escaped the notice of God. Even the hairs of your head have all been counted. Do not be afraid. You are worth more than many sparrows.”

— Luke 12:6-7 (NABRE © 2010 CCD. Used with permission.)

For those who doubt the value of their lives:
May they rest in the awareness that they are infinitely loved and that God has a plan for their lives; We pray to the Lord.

Helped Needed for SVdP Domestic Disaster Relief Fund

There will be a second collection at the end of all Masses next week (June 20/21) for the St. Vincent de Paul Domestic Disaster Relief Fund. Your donation will help those impacted by severe weather, flooding and tornadoes in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kentucky, Nebraska and West Virginia. Contributions will help to change lives, rebuild homes, provide shelter and purchase daily-living supplies. Special envelopes are at the end of each pew or you can simply put your donation in an envelope and mark it “SVdP Disaster Relief” and drop it in next week’s collection. Checks can be made payable to “St. Vincent de Paul”. Our local SVdP conference will send the funds to the national relief fund. Thank you for your generosity!

What if God spoke to us? How would we respond? Through praying with Scripture, God does speak to us. Join us for a guided meditation on Wednesday nights this summer and discover a new way of growing closer to God and learning about Sacred Scripture.

This is not a class. It is a time of prayer. This means that you don’t have to commit to coming every week, which is great for busy summer schedules.

Teen Ministries B.R.A.V.E

Bible Study: Catholics often forget that our faith is built on Sacred Tradition and Holy Scripture. We are sometimes uncomfortable opening up our Bible and reading the Word of God. Did you know if you come to Mass every Sunday for three years you have read more than 75% of the Gospel? Bible Study meetings focus on the Sunday readings.

Reflection: Just like your body needs water to survive your soul needs prayer. Reflection time is centered around various forms of prayer that will help us grow closer to God.

Action: Our meetings are focused on service projects and learning more about the Church’s social justice teachings while striving to be the heart, hands, and feet of Jesus to those in need.

Values: Come encounter Christ and move past the rules of faith to the meaning of love. Learn more about the values of our faith which will help you to grow and maintain a relationship with Christ.

Engage: This is where the magic happens. This ministry cannot run without the support and effort of caring teens and adults. To learn how to be a small group leader contact Carolyn for more information.

Habitat for Humanity Detroit

with Habitat for Humanity - Detroit

This year, Habitat for Humanity Detroit will build The Pope Francis House, which honors the inspirational leader of the Roman Catholic Church. A generous anonymous donor provided a gift of $60,000 to sponsor The Pope Francis House and seeks to inspire the Detroit Catholic community to raise another $60,000 to support this special build. The Pope Francis Build gives churches, schools, and fraternal organizations an opportunity to reach its goals of ministry and home missions by offering people a way to share God’s love and lead people to grow in their faith. It is a tangible way for members to put their faith into action, and reach beyond the walls of the church to serve.

The Pope Francis House will be part of Habitat Detroit’s 2015 Blitz Build scheduled for August 15-22 in the Morningside community – less than 10 miles from Our Lady Star of the Sea. Construction and Registration/Hospitality volunteers are needed.

Please find envelopes in the gathering space to help fund this project.

Registration
Newcomers to the parish may register in the Parish Office during regular office hours. Adults over 21 need to be registered as an individual member to be considered a Catholic in Good Standing. As a mark of courtesy, please notify the office when moving, either within or out of the parish boundaries. A change in phone numbers also requires a change to your records.

Emergencies
When calling the parish office phone number, follow the prompt and dial 333.
