Food for Thought…..

Papal Tweets
Pope Francis @Pontifex

♦ Hospitality in families is a crucial virtue today, especially in situations of great poverty.

♦ The most powerful witness to marriage is the exemplary lives of Christian spouses.

♦ The Church is called to be ever more attentive and caring toward the weak.

PLEASE NOTE:
There are no morning Masses scheduled this week.

Saturday, August 15th is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This year, however, as it occurs on the weekend, it is NOT considered a Holy Day of Obligation.
Looking For a Few Good Men and Women....
The Few, the Proud, the Catechists!

Are you recently retired, an “Empty Nester,” perhaps your youngest child will be in School all day and you are looking for a meaningful volunteer position?

The Religious Education Office is now accepting applications for joyful Catholics to join our wonderful team of catechists! Becoming a catechist provides you with an opportunity to grow in your faith, in your relationship with the Lord, and in holiness. Your gifts and time are needed in planning and executing an engaging and faith filled program for our parish families. Our programs seek to encourage a personal relationship with Christ for our youngest parishioners in our Kingdom Kids Sunday Preschool Program, our elementary and middle school students in our After School Program, our high school students in the Teen Ministries Program, and with our adult members in weekly Bible Study and other offerings throughout the year.

Available positions include:
- Office help (approx. 3 hours per week)
- Classroom aides during RE classes
- Catechists at various grade levels
- Team leaders for our Grade 7/8 Program
- Facilitators for adult offerings, including RCIA

Your skills and knowledge are valuable assets that we will put to good use. Contact Judy Zedan at j.zedan@stargp.org to arrange an interview or to ask any questions you may have.

Go and Make Disciples

“Sharing your Faith Story” has often been mentioned in this column as one of the instruments of Evangelization. In this article, various aspects of faith sharing will be discussed.

The purpose of faith sharing is to help others in their relationship with God.

Pope Francis recently said that our faith is not something private, for us alone. We are part of various communities and need to encourage one another.

“But in order not to privatize salvation, I need to ask myself if I speak and communicate the faith, speak and communicate hope, speak, practice and communicate charity.” (Pope Francis)

Faith sharing can take a variety of forms. The most common is one-on-one which will be the focus of this article.

Faith is also shared in small groups. This has occurred in our ChristLife sessions (Discovering Christ, Following Christ, and Sharing Christ), as well as other parish groups. Other methods include sharing on websites and large group presentations.

The subject matter for faith sharing is quite broad. Many think that it is about conversion to Catholicism or returning to the Church after being away. That’s true, but it’s not everything.

These are examples of questions to ask yourself as part of developing your faith story: Was there a time when your faith helped you through a difficult period in your life? Has your faith deepened or strengthened at some point? What made that happen?

As you develop and communicate your story, keep in mind that it’s about conversion to Catholicism or returning to the Church after being away. That’s true, but it’s not everything.

Your goal is not to be persuasive. You are simply trying to make someone more open to hearing what God wants them to hear and do. This may happen immediately or much later—and you may never know what happened.

We only sow the seed. It is the Spirit that does the real work.

Pray that the Spirit will guide you in your Evangelization efforts.

One in the Spirit,
Jean Wersching
Evangelization Commission

RJK - Role Model

Maximilian Kolbe, the saint of Auschwitz (feast day Aug. 14th), was a Polish Franciscan priest, committed by the Nazis to the concentration camp. A prisoner escaped. Punishment? Ten men from block 14A, in which Kolbe was confined, were arbitrarily selected to die of starvation. One was a young father (eventually the Cross bearer at the canonization ceremony) who pleaded to be spared.

Kolbe stepped forward and took his place. After two weeks in the starvation bunker, he was given a lethal injection on August 14, 1941. A young man (Wojtyla by name) worked as a laborer in a stone quarry in Poland at the time. He also studied, in secret, for the priesthood. The story of Kolbe reached his ears. Later on Oct. 10, 1982, Wojtyla aka as Pope John Paul II, presided at Kolbe’s canonization.

A fellow prisoner of Kolbe’s said about the experience at Auschwitz: “It was an enormous shock to the whole camp. We became aware someone among us in this spiritual dark night of the soul was raising the standard of love on high. Someone unknown, like everyone else, tortured and bereft of name and social standing, went to a horrible death for the sake of someone not even related to him. Therefore it is not true, we cried, that humanity is cast down and trampled in the mud, overcome by oppressors, and overwhelmed by hopelessness... To say that Father Kolbe died for one of us or for that person’s family is too great a simplification. His death was the salvation of thousands. And on this, I would say, rests the greatness of that death. That’s how we felt about it...That was a shock full of optimism, regenerating and giving strength; we were stunned by his act, which became for us a mighty explosion of light in the dark camp night...” (George Bielecki quoted, A Man for Others, Patricia Treece, pgs 178-179).

May we seek saintly intercession for God’s will as to our role. See you in church.
